

Design lives here

Sydney Design School

“I came here to study design,

I didn't know
it would change
my life.”

Live your own success story

At Sydney Design School we recognise that each person's journey is unique.

Whether you're just starting out or changing careers we can help you turn your dream into a reality and open the door to an exciting career in interiors.

Studying with us is like joining a practicing design studio. You'll work on real projects with real clients.

The outcome? You'll earn a relevant, industry recognised qualification.

Our courses are intensive, practical and industry focused. Flexible study options mean that you can study on campus during the day or evening, full or part time or entirely online.

A message from our Director - Amanda Grace

We believe in Collaboration

Study alongside like-minded people who share a passion and love for design in our modern creative studios. Be mentored by practicing designers who are all working at the forefront of their industry.

Innovation

Learn how to think outside the square, be courageous and take risks with your ideas. Our courses are designed to ensure that you graduate with a polished portfolio of work showcasing your skills.

Keeping it real

Be immersed in the latest design trends, meet industry suppliers and work on real briefs with real clients. We know one of the best ways to learn is through real life experience.

Our Courses

When you study at Sydney Design School you'll graduate with an internationally recognised qualification and a professional industry ready portfolio showcasing your unique skills and talent.

Certificate IV in Interior Decoration (MSF40118)

If your passion lies in interior decorating this course will take you from enthusiast to professional.

Explore all aspects of design for residential interiors in this hands-on, industry focused course.

Learn how to make considered decisions about colour, fabric, lighting, soft furnishings and space planning. The course culminates with a major project for a real client - an invaluable opportunity to showcase your style and skills to future employees and clients.

Graduate - Laura Downie
Designer & Stylist, Studio 1 Interiors

Diploma of Interior Design and Decoration (MSF50218)

Solve problems, create dynamic spaces and build atmosphere.

Be exposed to the latest design trends and best practice for residential and commercial interiors including retail, office and hospitality design. Bring your creative ideas to life using 3D modelling software and professional presentation techniques.

Upon graduation your polished, industry focused portfolio will ensure you are ready to make your mark as a cutting-edge Interior Designer.

Advanced Diploma of Interior Design (MSF60118)

Learn the skills to become a commercial Interior Designer

Explore a range of interior environments including residential, retail, hospitality, office, hotels, aged care and education.

Our real world briefs are complex, requiring you to think outside the square and develop a strategic approach to your design proposals. There is a strong focus on advanced presentation skills, design management and documentation - skills that will make you eminently employable.

“SDS was the perfect platform to start my design journey. I loved the style of learning. It was a true indication of how the design industry works.”

Graduate - Amy Lee
Interior Designer, Siren Design

Our Educators
bring passion and energy into the classroom.

Design taught by Interior Designers

Coming from diverse backgrounds in the interior design, decoration and architecture industries, our Educators bring a wealth of real world design experience that they will share with you. At the forefront of their industry, they will mentor and push you to be the best creative you can be.

Educator - Dani Mantovani
Interior Designer, Décor Project

We host regular events,
guest speakers and seminars
to share our professional connections and industry insights with you.

Engage with industry

Opening doors to all areas of the interior design industry is an essential part of what we do.

Our frequent excursions get you out of the classroom and into the world of design.
You'll visit cutting edge design studios and supplier showrooms, to inspire creativity and be exposed to the latest materials, finishes, fittings and furniture design.

Graduate with connections

Be mentored by our in-house Career Coach who will work with you to create and maximise opportunities in the interior design industry – whether in your own business or for an interiors or architectural firm. Over 90% of our students find positions in the industry within six months of graduating.

Our job placement service, SDS Connect, provides individual career advice and access to a range of employment opportunities and internships.

Craving a creative career
but need to fit study around other commitments?

“I couldn’t leave my day job so I studied online in the evenings, working through each unit at my own pace. It was the best decision I’ve made.”

Graduate - Joanne West

Interior Design Online

Study at your own pace anywhere, anytime.

You'll receive the same high quality education as you would if attending our Sydney campus. Our courses are delivered by interactive video tutorials and quality resources via our eCampus.

Studying online needn't be a lonely experience. Throughout your course your Educator will be just a click or a call away. You'll study with like-minded creatives with many opportunities to connect with each other and share experiences.
